Legacy of Valor:

1/75 Ranger Battalion Honors 50 Years of Courage and Camaraderie.

The 1/75 Ranger Battalion recently celebrated its illustrious 50-year history with a four-day extravaganza brimming with excitement and camaraderie. From the milestone activities of Banner Day, to an adrenaline-pumping shooting competition to the finesse of a golf tournament, generations of Rangers from the battalion commemorated its legacy with style. The highlight of the festivities included the annual Ranger Ball, where past and present Rangers came together to honor their heritage. A captivating concert by Chain Reaction and the Michael Stacey Band further electrified the atmosphere, echoing the spirit of resilience and brotherhood that defines the battalion. Throughout the celebration, the Sua Sponte Foundation stood as a pillar of support, ensuring the success of each event and reinforcing the bond between the battalion and its community.

Sua Sponte Foundation Sends Care Packages to Deployed Rangers of 1/75

Volunteers from the Sua Sponte Foundation have demonstrated their unwavering support for deployed Rangers of the 1/75th Battalion by assembling and sending care packages filled with essential items. These thoughtful packages, comprising snacks, toiletries, and other useful supplies, aim to provide comfort and support to the brave men serving our country in challenging environments. This gesture reflects the foundation's commitment to honoring and uplifting military personnel, reminding them that they are appreciated and not forgotten during their service away from home.

Rangers March in St. Patrick's Day Parade

Marching proudly amidst the vibrant festivities of Savannah's St. Patrick's Day Parade, members of the 1/75th U.S. Army Ranger Battalion showcased their dedication and spirit to the community. Decked in their distinguished uniforms, the Rangers marched in unison, drawing admiration and applause from spectators lining the streets. As they marched with precision and pride, the Rangers exemplified the values of courage, honor, and service that define their esteemed unit.
